ONLY TWO PINS TO GOOD.

Ex-D Punks Barely Squeezed Through in Masonic Match.

What constituted the Punks team of the Masonic bowling league were forced to relinquish their proud title last evening and assume the more ignominious one of D. Punks after an exciting encounter which was won by the Ex-D. Punks by the very narrow margin of two pins. The ex-Punks claim that they would have been able to hold their own name had it not been that they were forced to roll with only one regular, but it is noticeable, in passing, that one of the sub hits for high total and high single as well. The team scores were 1,242 to 1,240, compiled as follows:

Ex-D. Punks.
Proctor,	77	79	78—234
Light,	86	79	79—244
Hall,	82	68	85—235
Tracey,	85	98	101—284
Thompson (sub),	96	76	73—245

Sporting Notes.

The Eastern league was scheduled to start the season today.
Lanning, former Wesleyan pitcher and captain, will join the Athletics June 20.

Kauff was one of three Giants whom George Tyler retired on strikes consecutively yesterday.

Graney of the Cleveland team is hitting fully as hard and as often as the more famous Speaker.

There are 2,400 athletes in Philadelphia for the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival today and tomorrow.

Vermont held Brown for five innings Wednesday at Providence, but after that the Rhode Islanders won as they pleased, the final score being 8 to 1.

Harvard defeated Colby yesterday, 4 to 2. Each team made five hits, but the Colby pitcher, Gately, had a streak of wildness in the second inning which was in the midst of a couple of hits.

James E. Keady, well known here as a Twin State league umpire, married Tuesday in Bethlehem, Pa., Miss Marion T. Rayner of that city. They will make their home in or near Wakefield, Mass., Keady's native place.

The opinion of the New York World baseball expert on Marty McHale's ability is thus succinctly set forth: "Although Marty McHale in the second inning hit Home Run Baker, no one named this Boston pitcher of using the bean ball. In the first place Agnew had signalled for a high, fast ball, in the second place Marty has about the same control as that enjoyed by a man with St. Vitus dance, and in the third place he hasn't speed enough to make a bean ball much more formidable than a rap with a feather duster."
